FUNSTON HAS 100,000 MEN

Baker Cuts Red Tape to Hasten Movement of U. S. Troops

AWAIT FINAL REPORT

Indications Increase All the Time that Carranza is Seeking a Way Out of Difficulty

Washington, June 24—National Guard organizations throughout the country are straining every nerve to prepare for active service on the Mexican border. New orders flashed over the wires by Secretary Baker bore a call for haste.

Red tape was cast aside and authorization given under which the State soldiers will be rushed to re- earliest possible moment. The entire army of 100,000 men summoned by President Wilson's call was placed directly at General Funston's disposal.

Congess also took vigorous and far-reaching action. A resolution adopted in the House by a vote of 332 to 2 declares that an emergency calling for the use of troops in addition to regulars now exists and authorizes the President to draft immediately into the service of the United States all members of the National Guard who subscribe to the new oath for that service. In effect the measure gives legislative approval of President Wilson's call on state soldiers, and provides for their use in or out of the United States. It also furnishes new machinery with which to hasten the strengthening of the border guard.

The Senate probably will pass the resolution today.

Diplomatic aspects of the crisis are virtually unchanged. President Wilson could reach no final decision as to action resulting from the attack by Mexican troops upon American cavalrymen at Carrizal or upon American bluejackets at Mazatlan. Only a preliminary and inclusive report on the Carrizal clash came from General Pershing yesterday. It was based on the statements of stragglers, and no account had come from the officers of the shattered detachment. The last word on the Mazatlan incident will follow a full report from Admiral Winslow, commanding the Pacific fleet, who has been ordered to the scene to make a personal investigation.

As the situation stands at the State Department, only preliminary reports on each incident have been received from War and Navy officials, transmitted as matters of information. When the record is complete in each department formal accounts will be submitted to Secretary Lansing, and the action of the United States then will be determined.

Evidence now in hand is believed to be sufficient to show that Carranza sympathizers, or officials probably will be held responsible in both cases. Indications are that the Washington Government will stand on the reports of its own officers and refute the assertions of the Mexican Government, officially presented here, that Americans were the aggressors or that irresponsible individuals precipitated the clash. It was thought probable tonight that the President would demand that Carranza repudiate the acts and punish those responsible.

New indications came yesterday that Carranza and his advisers, impressed by the arguments of European representatives or the ominous significance of the preparations for war ordered by President Wilson, were searching for a peaceful solution of the dispute they have raised. Eliseo Arredondo, Mexican Ambassador designate, made the rounds of the Latin-American embassies and legations, with assurance from his Government that Mexican troops had no aggressive purpose against the American columns and would attack only if the Americans were on the offensive. His advices however, did not say what would be regarded as offensive operations.

In this connection it was noted that the State Department has as yet obtained no confirmaion through Special Agents Rodgers of reports that Carranza himself directed General Trevino to notify General Pershing that any movement of his troops except toward the border would be resisted. General Pershing's report on the warning from Trevino was transmitted to Mexico City some days ago.

FLEISCHMANN DISMISSED

Not Sufficient Evidence to Convict of Selling Liquor to Women

In police court today acting police justice Thompson dismissed the case against Harry Fleischmann, proprietor of the Hotel Fleischmann who was charged with selling liquor to women. The offense was said to have been committed on last Wednesday night when Sergeant Wilkinson found a number of women in the dining room of the Fleischmann Hotel, apparently drinking.

The investigation of the case consumed but a few minutes. Sergeant Wilkerson stated that when he first accosted Fleischmann, calling his attention to the supposition that men and women had been furnished with intoxicants, he alleged he did not know he had violated the law in allowing females in his hostelry. He first, according to the sergeant, denied supplying the women with liquor, but later acknowledged he had. The sergeant's testimony was corroborated by other officers.

Fleischmann, upon taking the stand, denied the charge that he had furnished women with liquor. He said men entered his place that night and purchased beer, but that the men who were at the table with the females did not tender them beer, but drank it themselves.

In the absence of any positive evidence that liquor had been furnished the women on the night in question, the accused was dismissed. The court however, stated that Commonwealth Attorney Brent had filed a motion in the corporation court for the revocation of Fleischmann's license, which will be returnable July 10th. on the grounds that he had been convicted of selling liquor on election day.

According to the present laws of the state, proprietors of saloons are forbidden to allow women in their places of business or to sell to this gender.

CUBANS' PEACE PLAN

Carranza Rejects Suggestion From Havana and Puts Blame for Situation on United States

Buenos Aires, June 24—The Argentine government will dispatch a note to Chile today or tomorrow, politely declining to intervene with other South American republics at the present time in an effort to prevent war between Mexico and the United States.

The communication will be in reply to a message from the Chilean foreign minister, suggesting that all Latin-America join in the movement A similar message was sent to the Brazilian government by the Chilean foreign office after communicating with the government of Ecuador.

What attitude Brazil will take toward Chile's suggestion is not known Dr. Lauro Muller, Brazilian minister of foreign affairs, conferred with the President of Brazil yesterday before sailing for New York. He then sent a cablegram to Ambassador da Gama at Washington, expressing confidence that the American and Mexican governments would be able to settle their difficulties without war.

The United Press was authoritatively informed that Ambassador Naon at Washington has received no instructions from the Argentine government, beyond the customary request that he keep his government fully informed. All other South American diplomats have received similar instructions.

New York, June 24—A special cable dispatch to the New York Times from Havana says:

Orestes Ferrara, as speaker of the lower house of the Cuban Congress, cabled to General Carranza today, urging the avoidance of war with the United States, which would break the equilibrium of the American continent.

General Carranza answered promptly, laying the blame on the Americans

Baltimore, June 24—While 16 year old Myrtle Taylor, of the Morgenec section of Kent county, is in the Maryland General Hospital, under guard, her father, Elwood Taylor, 40 years old, is locked up in the Chestertown jail, held on a serious charge. A child was born to the daughter on Sunday morning, and died the following afternoon. The suspicious circumstances surrounding the death resulted in an investigation which led to the arrest of Taylor, the girl's father. Taylor on the way to Chestertown jail confessed, it is said, to being the father of the child, saying that the girl was his daughter and he had her to care for and believed he had a right to use her as he pleased. It is stated that the child bore every evidence of having been suffocated. Other evidence produced at the inquest was to the effect that the child had been intentionally put to death by Taylor to hide his crime and shame.

Cumberland, Md., June 24.—James Elmer Davis, a farmer, residing near Beasley Mill, on Evitts Creek, was arrested by Sheriff Peter C. McFarland and Deputy Walter Cloud on a charge preferred by his 15 year old daughter, Hattie Davis.

FRENCH REGAIN THEIR TRENCHES

Germans Hurled From Thiaumont in Fight Before Verdun

PRESSURE RELIEVED

Crown Prince Throws 120,000 Men in Renewed Smash Against Defenses of Fortress

Paris, June 24—In an impetuous counter attack last night, French troops recaptured a large part of the positions lost to the Germans in yesterday's violent fighting on the northeastern front of Verdun, the war office announced today.

A large sector of the trenches surrendered to the Germans between Hills 321 and 320 were recaptured The Germans were thrown out of the edge of the Thiaumont wood, which they took in yesterday's fighting.

In the same attack the French recaptured all the trenches lost to the Germans on the night of June 21, between the Fumin and Chenois woods.

Fresh reports from the Verdun front today indicate that the crown prince has resumed the drive on the fortress with a powerful attack almost equalling some of his earlier efforts.

The war office announced that over six German divisions (more than 120,000 men) participated in the great smash against the French lines on a three mile front yesterday.

The Germans drove forward to within three and one half miles of the heart of Verdun, reaching the village of Fleury. Had they maintained their gains at this point the whole French position on the east bank of the Meuse might have been seriously threatened.

An immediate counter-attack threw the enemy back from Fleury in the direction of the Caillette woods. The French followed up this advantage last night. By powerful blows against the German flanks and center they forced the enemy line back on a wide front.

While this furious fighting was going on the east bank of Meuse on a violent battle begun last r the west bank or the Meuse. The Germans again attacked French positions on Hill 304. Fighting went on all night, but the latest official dispatches reported the repulse of all German attacks.

JAPANESE DENY REPORT

Attempts of Mexicans to Buy Arms and Ammunition Fail

Tokyo, June 24—Bar Ishill, Japanese foreign minister characterizes as absurd any statement that the Japanese government will supply the Mexicans with arms and ammunition.

"The Japanese nation," the foreign minister declared, "sincerely hopes that any armed conflict between the United States and Mexico may be avoided. The interests of Japan in North, South and Central America are essentially pacific and commercial" Baron Ishill said that any event, such as war with Mexico which would result in disturbances in America would affect adversely Japan's interests. He pointed out that since the European market for Japan's products has been closed and the Chinese market is unsettled, the American market is regarded as practically the only one for Japanese goods.

Tokyo, June 24—Attempts of the Mexican government to buy arms and ammunition in Japan have failed.

A representative of the Mitsui Company, one of the three biggest arms companies in Japan, stated yesterday that it had received inquiries from Mexico, but replied that it already had so many contracts from the allies that it could not take any more offers.

DEATH NOTICE

Died at the Alexandria Hospital, Saturday, June 24th., MRS. MARY FLORENCE PARTLOW. Age 60 years. Notice of funeral later.

AMERICAN NOTE TO MEXICO

Carranza Has Not Published Text of Communication

Mexico City, June 24—The note of the American government in reply to the communication of Gen. Carranza demanding the withdrawal of the American forces in Mexico has not yet been published here.

High official of the government declared today that Mexico is not attacking the American punitive expedition, but said that by no means will Mexico allow these troops to advance southward. They added that the Mexican people were surprised at reports coming from the north that the United States alleges that Mexico was seeking war, especially as American forces had invaded Mexico.

Gen. Carranza coninues to receive telegrams from various parts of the republic offering the services of the senders in case of war. It is estimated here that a least 500,000 men will join the constitutionalist army. The governor of the state of Mexico has wired Minister of War Obregon that several prominent citizens of Toluca had offered to join the army and expressed their willingness to contribute large sums for war expenses.

The cabinet held a meeting this morning. Although the matters discussed were not made public, it is understood that international situation was a topic dealt with.

KILLED BY SPURNED YOUTH

Girl of 16 Shot Down as She Washes Dishes in Her Home

Philadelphia, June 24—As she stood washing the supper dishes in her home near Waterford, Camden county, Thursday night, Annie, the 16 year old daughter of Joseph Ticcone, a well to do farmer, was shot and instantly killed. The crime was committed it is charged, by Giovanni Conglory, a youthful farmhand, whose home is said to be in this city. County Physician Stem, of Berlin, was quickly on the scene, and a posse of officers was soon scouring the country side for the alleged slayer, who fled the scene immediately after the shooting. He was captured in a woods near midnight and taken to the Camden county jail. He declared the shooting was accident.

Conglory, it was said last night had gone to work for Ticcone about a week ago, and it was supposed that he had become enamored of the farmer's young daughter, who was comely and popular in that section. Coroner Stem was not sure last night what led to the crime, but he was informed that young Conglory had been spurned by the girl, who had taken much pride in her school studies and was well advanced in the public school. She was a great help about the home and the farm, and her father was almost beside himself with grief and rage when he learned of her terrible death.

Dr. Stem learned that as the unfortunate girl was busy with the dishes in the kitchen of her home Conglory stepped to the door with a shotgun and fired without warning. The charge struck the girl in the back of the head and she dropped without a murmur. Conglory, carrying the gun, fled to the near by woods.

MANY DIE ON MINED SSIP.

Petrograd, June 24.—The loss of life on the steamer Mercury, which was sunk by a mine in the Black Sea has been undoubtedly large, according to late reports in regard to the

The Mercury was traveling from Odessa to Kherson with 800 passengers, including many college students bound home for the summer vacation. The vessel struck the mine 13 miles from Odessa and two miles off shore, in a rough sea. The bow was blown off ad the ship sank in five minutes.

William McGovern, a mineralogist of Bristol, who has spent considerable time investigatig the ores of East Tennessee and Western North Carolia, says that he has discovered ores in the mountains of North Carolina that show pointed radio activity. He is of the impression that a proper test of these ores probably would reveal the world's real supply of radium. He had made arragements with German capitalists to develop the properties referred to when they suddenly called back home, on account of the war.

CUTTING CLEAR OVER BUKOWINA

Russians Endeavoring to Capture Francis Joseph's Army

TAKE MORE VILLAGES

Tuetons Said to be Receiving Reinforcements From the French and Italian Battle Fronts

Petrograd, June 24—The Russian forces which are cutting their way through Bukowina in an effort to capture the Austrian army there have made further advances. The War Office announces the capture of three villages west of Radautz, 30 miles south of Czernowitz, the occupation of which was reported Thursday. Eight hundred prisoners were taken.

The Russians have traversed almost the entire length of Bukowina. The town of Gurahumora is 10 miles from the Rumanian border. Visnitz is on the border, between Galicia and Bukowina, 35 miles southwest of Czernowitz.

London, June 24.—A Russian official communication confirms what already had been learned from Austrian admissions, that the Russians are overrunning Bukowina and are making a dash for the passes to the Carpathian Mountains, as they did 18 months ago, when they reached Kirlibaba Pass, overlooking Austrian Transylvania. A report from Bucharest states that the Russians have taken possession of two railways leading from Rumania into Bukowina.

The information that the Germans and Austrians are bringing up reinforcements from the French and Italian fronts also is given in the communication from Petrograd. According to speculations in Paris, the tornado of artillery fire on the Verdun sector and the attacks in Champagne are supposed to mask the transfer of troops from this front to the Russian front in view of the necessity of stemming the Russian advance toward Kovel.

ADDRESS ON SPIRITUALISM.

Evangelist Gibson Will Speak at the Tent on N. Washington St., Tomorrow Night.

"Spiritualism" will be the subject of the discourse of Evangelist Gibson at the tent on north Washington street tomorrow night at 7:45 o clock.

The evangelist last night spoke on the "Angels." He said, among other things, that angels were created beings, and were in existence before man was placd upon the earth; also that angels were really intelligent beings who sometimes came in the form of men to instruct the latter in the ways of God. Angels of God came to Abraham and ate food which had been prepared for them; and angels went to the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah to destroy them by fire and brimstone from God. Angels bade Lot, hi wife and two daughters to flee for their lives and not look behind them. Angels of heaven came at the first advent of Christ and announced His birth, and angels will come with him when He comes at his second advent. The evangelist said that man was made a little lower than the angels, and that human beings would never become angels; that the latter were ministering spirits sent forth to minister to unto them who are heirs of salvation,; that the angels of heaven rejoice over one sinner that repenteh. He further stated that each of God's children has a guardian angel, and these angels at resurrection will gather together His elect from all over the earth, and will take them up in the clouds and meet the Lord in the air.

WILL BE GIVEN SEND-OFF

Alexandria Soldier Boys to Receive Ovation Upon Their Departure From Home.

Plans have been put under way for one of the biggest patriotic celebrations that have ever been held in this city, when practically all of Alexandria's populace will turn out to give the members of its crack military company, the Alexandria Light Infantry, officially known as Company G, First Regiment, Virginia Volunteers, the glad hand and one memorable send off before its departure for Richmond. The movement has been instigated by the great interest of the city in its soldier boys and by the great admiration that their immediate responding to the colors for the defense of the country's honor has invoked.

Meetings of Alexandria's business men were held last night, under the direction of the Chamber of Commerce and the Retail Merchants' Association, when outline plans were made for the huge fete. A representative of the business men called on Mayor Fisher and secured his hearty cooperation in the movement, the mayor a Spanish war veteran himself, promising his enthusiastic support of the whole affair.

As soon as orders, which are expected the first of next week, are received by the Light Infantry to depart for the mobilization camp at Richmond, the bell in the city hall tower will ring out the news and all the city and fire engine bells will at once clang away. This is the signal. Immediately all the patriotic, civil and fraternal organizations that will take part in the celebration will assemble at the corner of King and Washington streets, where they will form a huge parade and march to the Armory. The American Indian Guard band and the Holy Name band will furnish the music and the battalion of cadets of the Alexandria High School will be among the marchers.

Dr. William M. Smith was invited this morning to be marshall of the parade and accepted. Dr. Thomas B. Cochran was named as chief of staff and the aides will be selected at a meeting to be held this afternoon. Dr. Smith has requested that all organizations of the city join in the proposed celebration and is particularly anxious to have the members of the patriotic societies such as the Confederate Veterans, Sons of the Confederate Veterans the G. A. R. Spanish War Veterans, and others in the line of march. Each person taking marching in the parade is requested to bring an American flag.

At the Armory a few short addresses will probably be made, among those who will take part in this feature of the program being Representative Charles C. Carlin, Judge Louis C. Barley, of the Corporation Court, Mayor Thomas A. Fisher, and a number of city officials.

Company G. now numbers about seventy two enlisted men and three commissioned officers, and is marking time at the Armory awaiting orders from Colonel Perry, at the headquarters of the First Regiment at Staunton, to depart for the mobilization camp.

Robert L. Payne, vice president of the Chamber of Commerce, and Joseph H. Schwarzmann, president of the Retail Merchants' Association, are in charge of the arrangements and want all the members of these organizations to assemble as soon as possible after the news is received of the company' orders to leave.

TAX BILLS WILL BE LATE

Alexandrians Will Necessarily Have Time Extended Sixty or Ninety Days.

Alexandria tax payers will be granted from sixty to ninety days extra time to pay their current year's taxes this year. The tax bills which are usually payable on July 1st are not ready and will not be in the hands of City Tax Collector Gorman until the first of September and may be delayed a longer time.

The delay is caused by the new tax laws and the time required by the state auditor to prepare the forms which are presented to each tax payer. These interrogatory sheets upon which personal and intangible property is listed were from three to four months late in reaching Charles H. Callahan, commissioner of revenue and the assessment could not be even commenced until they were received. The new law requires the blanks to be sent to each tax paper, filled out by him and sworn to before the commissioner of revenue. While the blanks are intended for the assessment of state taxes the city assessment follows that of the state and the city bills cannot be made up until Commissioner Callahan has completed his books.

City council has already fixed the city rate for next year with the usual discount and it is expected that the time of payments will be delayed in order that tax payers can still receive the benefit of the discount for prompt payment. This feature is now being considered by the finance committee of city council which will hold a meeting on Monday night of the purpose of formulating its recommendation to city council.

VIRGINIA'S BLUE LAW."

Tomorrow will be the second Sunday under which the Old Dominion will be governed under a law enacted a few days subsequent to the close of the revolutionary war, forbidding the transaction of any unnecessary business on the first day of the week, the Christian Sabbath. The decisions given in the Police Court of Alexandria last Monday morning concerning certain occupations regarded as necessary will stand, but as the law forbids unnecessary work or the conduct of business not regarded as essential, the police will, of course, enforce the statute as interpreted.

Virginia has been perplexed by the insistance that this law be enforced to the letter, and already there is manifest a decided demurrer to carry it out as it reads in the code. In Norfolk the commonwealth's attorney holds the sale of cigars ice cream, soda water and other soft drinks would not be regarded as a violation of the law against conducting operations on Sunday. Numbers of representative people in Richmond are voicing their regrets that the law has enforced last Sunday to the letter and in accordance with its supposed broad sweep. It is specially urged that the sale of tobacco and cigars should not be interdicted. It is said that last Sunday men from other states arrived in the Virginia capital after having smoked their last cigar, supposing they could procure all they wanted at the hotels. Upon being told that nothing could not be sold on Sunday the strangers were naturally indignant. It was also said that some men who chew tobacco were compelled to observe the first day of the week as one of fasting from the Indian plant .

The Civil and Police Justice at News Nort has ruled that all places of business formerly kept open on Sunday are a necessity.

One Alexandrian who deals in ice cream and soft drinks has taken an appeal to the Corporation Court he having been fined five dollars last Monday morning for selling such articles last Ssnday.

The Police Court last Monday decided that, according to the letter of the law, such occupations could not be conducted on Sunday, they not being regarded as necessary. Those who favor, however, urge that during the summer season a refreshing drink might be regarded as essential. The increasing number of automobilists who pass through Alexandria every Sunday going or coming from Mount Vernon regard soft drinks and ice cream as necessaries after a nine-mile ride through dust and heat.

The attorney for the Alexandria dealer will bring the appeal from the the Corporation Court as soon as possible. Should the judgment of the lower court be set aside the decision will of course apply to all who conduct refreshment shops or stands.

THE MAN WITHOUT A COUNTRY.

One of Henry Ford's managers announces: "We would be sorry to see any of our men resign to enlist in the Guard, but both recruits and State militiamen will be treated alike—as though they quit the plant to engage in other lines of business."

The Philadelphia Record calls attention to the fact that the southern border of the United States has been repeatedly invaded in the last nine months. The de facto Government of Mexico is unable or unwilling to prevent this. The United States has had o send roops into Mexico to punish the marauders. The de facto Government is protecting the latter and resisting our pursuit of them. A few months ago, in a full page advertisement that Mr. Ford's enormous profits enabled him to put into a considerable number of papers, he seemed to regard this use of the army "as a police force," as not entirely repugnant. But now he would regret to see any of his employees engage in the defense of the country.

It is not his country. He is a Man Without a Country. Nothing but the world is big enough for his expansive soul. The United States is no more to him than Thibet or Mexico. Mexicans can harry the southern part of the United States as much as they like, so far as Henry Ford cares. Detroit is a long way from the Rio Grande.

Of course, no employer is obliged to pay his men while they are serving their country, but many of them love their country and are willing to do it. Others will keep the places for their men; that is, if they need to replace the men who go to protect the United States, they will replace them with temporary employees, and when their country no longer needs them the employers will have the old places for the men who cared enough about their country to defend it.

But Henry Ford will do neither. If any man leaves him to defend the country he leaves for good and all. Henry Ford doesn't care whether the United States is invaded or not .He doesn't care whether it is conquered or not. He has so preposterous an income that he has to pay unskilled labor $5 a day in order to work off some of his surplus. But he was no money for men who respond to the call of the nation. What's a nation to make to him who dominates this Henry Ford? What difference does it nation? What is the United States, anyway, more than Bolivia or Siam, or any other political division on the surface of the globe? The factory at Detroit will go on just the same. Millions will continue to pour into the pocket of Henry Ford without interruption. The nation means nothing to him. Patriotism is a foolish and hurtful sentiment. Let the Mexicans take whatever they want of the United States. They can have Detroit, for that matter. If any emplyee of his is foolish enough to serve his country Henry Ford will do nothing for him. He is a Man Without a Country.

GERMANS UP AGAINST IT.

Germany has hurried forces to the east from the west side and the advance of the Russians have been checked in places by the vigor that augmentations of German troops for the less effective Austrians always produce. But the check is far from being satisfactory to the Central Powers, and the Russians are still making Kovel their objective with Lemberg looming in the near perspective as the point of spectacular assault. Bukowina and the Austrian army during their operating are near absorption. As a contemporary observes there seems to be little doubt that the hitherto invincible advance of the Russians will continue and that the onward march will witness the capture of isolated detachments, and even army sections by the Russians to swell their already immense number of prisoners taken.

Recruits for the Teutons mean very little with Russians prepared to throw fourteen or fifteen million men into action and amply provided with the latest type of munitions, manufactured by the Japanese.

The assault upon the Champagne front doubtless indicates a fresh point of offensive in the west. Verdun has proven impregnable and the Germans are now feeling for some other spot where there may be some promise of success for piercing the French front. Such is the stressful work that is laid upon the German armies.

SPREAD OF THE WAR CLOUD.

One of the more significant side happenings in the course of the war is the revolt of the Arabs against the Turks. The Grand Sheriff of Mecca, who is the chief magistrate of the Holy City, has declared his independence and has the support of the tribesmen. Military operations already begun in the early part of the months have witnessed the success of the rebels in several directions. The prestige of the Turks with the Mohammedan world has been greatly shaken by the revolt, that has lost to them Mecca, and that witnesses the Arabs about to take the city where lies the body of Mohammed.

The Arabs hold that by their acts the Turks have abdicated their position as the defenders of Mohammedanism and have become the vassals of the Germans. Efforts to feature the Kaiser as descended from Mohammed himself did not delude even the credulous of the Arabs and the more enlightened have never looked with favor upon the alliance of the Turks with the Germans.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Austrian aeroplanes dropped bombs on Venice yesterday morning killing six persons. The material damage was insignificant.

It is reported from Bucharest that Russia has offered Czernowitz to Roumania if she will join the allies. Roumanian opinon is said to be favorable to the proposal.

Gen. Pershing telegraphed the War Department last night that only seven men of the two troops of American cavalry ambushed by Carranza forces at Carrizal have been accounted for.

The blockade placed upon Greek shipping by the allies to enforce their ultimatum is expected to be raised at once as a result of the acceptance of the demands of England, France and Russia by the Greek government.

Representatives of nine big organizations of the District of Columbia, met at the home of Mrs. Archibald Hopkins, in Washington, yesterday afternoon and banded themselves together to work for the relief of the families of the men who as militiamen, are ready to go to the border.

Pope Benedict is much distressed over seeing virtually the whole world fighting, according to information coming from the Vatican, after the news of the combat between Americans and Mexicans had been received. The pontiff entertains hope that hostilities between the United States and Mexico wil be averted through the intervention of Spain, which is supported by the Holy See.

A sensational report is being spread in London that Gen. von Folkenhayne and Marshal Conrad von Hoetzendorf have been removed from their posts as chiefs of the German and Austrian general staffs. It added that Gen. Schach, a German commander at Verdun had been dismissed.

Expressing the hope that war would be averted, Cardinal Gibbons, when seen in Baltimore last night, said he was glad to hear that efforts were being made to have this country and Mexico mediate their differences, as has been suggested by certain of the Latin-American republics. The cardinal's whole tone was for peace, but in the event that such a contingency could not be brought about, he made the prediction that the struggle would be a short one and that the United States would easily be the victor.

By practically a unanimous vote, the House yesterday passed a joint resolution saying that "in the opinion of Congress" an emergency exists which demands the use by the President of the National Guard and authorizing the President to draft the militia into the service of the United States. The vote was 332 to 2. The same resolution appropriates $1,000,000 for the support of dependent families of National Guard members.

Sheriff Robert Phillips, of Madison Ala., shot and killed himself at the county jail at Huntsville yesterday. It was the second suicide growing out of the recent murder of Probate Judge W. T. Lawler. The sheriff left a note saying he had been suspected of the murder, but was innocent. H. S. Pleasant, an attorney killed himself at Huntsville last Tuesday, leaving a letter saying he feared he was suspected of complicity in the murder. Judge Lawler's body was found a week ago in a bog. Several men are under arrest.

The Progressive State committee of Massachusetts and a number of delegates to the party's recent national convention in Chicago went on record yesterday as opposed to inforsement by the national committee of the presidential nominee of any other party, and in favor of placing before the people a Progressive candidate for President. Should the national committee indorse another party's presidential candidate, its action will not be recognized, the resolution says: The meeting advocated "standing squarely for principles and disregarding political expediency or individual failure."

Leaders of the Progressive party in Michigan, including the members of the state central committee, at a meeting in Jackson yesterday adopted a resolution declaring in favor of perpetuating the party and opposing any step which has for its purpose placing the name of Charles E. Hughes at the head of the Progressive ticket at the meeting of the Progressive national committee in Chicago June 26. The resolution was adopted after a heated discussion in which Henry M. Wallace, of Detroit former Pregressive national committeeman, accused Col. Theodore Roosevelt of having betrayed his party.

"New York to London in thirty hours" will be the slogan of the American Aircraft Company, which has been incorporated in Wilmington, Del., with a capitalization of $5,000,000, to operate an trans-Atlantic air and water passenger and mail service beginning, if present plans are carried out, next October. The hydro-aeroplane, which will be manufactured near New York, has been patterned after the lines of the seagull insofar as air resistance is concerned, and wil be propelled by four 300-horse-power motors. It has been estimated that the machine will develop a maximum speed of 150 miles an hour.

The Pythagorians of Ancient Greece ate simple food, practiced temperance and purity. As a badge they used the five pointed star which they regarded as a symbol of health. A red five pointed star appears on each package of Chamberlain's Tablets, and still fulfils its ancient mission as a symbol of health. If you are troubled with indigestion, biliousness or constipation, get a package of these tablets from your druggist. You will be surprised at the quick relief which they afford. A Safe Bank In Which To Deposit Your Money

VIRGINIA NEWS

Reports submitted Thursday at the twenty-third annual convention of the Virginia Bankers' Associaton at Old Point, showed that the state is more prosperous financially than at any time in years. The convention convened with 200 delegates in attendance.

The Bank of Crocketts, at Crocketts, seven miles west of Wytheville, on the Norfolk and Western Railway was robbed of $4,400 in currency at noon yesterday by two strangers. They entered the bank, covered the cashier, Arthur Hounshel, and a patron, Roy Groseclose with pistols, The robbers forced the cashier and Groseclose to go into the vaults, where they remained nutil the robbery was accomplished. Being about dinner time, there were few people in the vicinity of the bank, so the robbers did not attract any outside attention. Leaving the town, they met Philip Snavely, a farmer, in an automobile. The commandeered his machine, tied Snavely to a tree in the woods and fled.

E. V. Barley, of Botetourt, examiner of records for the Nineteenth circuit, has just returned from a visit to New York. His journey there was for the purpose of getting information regarding the holding of certain Virginians in his circuit — Alleghany, Bath, Highland, Botetourt and Clifton Forge—in chartered concerns in that state. Some idea of the success of his quest was ascertained when he declared that he had found two men in one county who were shy to the extent of half a million dollars in making returns, with leads indicating that there are others who are delinquent for equal amounts in other counties and some in Clifton Forge and Covington.

Public sentiment in Richmond is apparently highly in favor of open cigar and tobacco stands in the various hotels in the city for the convenience of travelers who find it necessary to stop in Richmond oper Sundays. According to the interpretation of the Sunday "blue laws" by the Richmond officials the opening of these stands is not a "necessity," Travelers entering Richmond last Sunday had failed to stock themselves with tobacco the day previous, many never having heard of the enforcement of the "blue laws." it is said. According to hotel men several offered to pay as much as a quarter for a five-cent cigar and when no smoke was forthcoming offered unsavory remarks about the city. For men who are accustomed to smoking several cigars and cigarettes every days the deprivation of their tobacco is admittedly a hardship. To many it is not a luxury, but something very like a necessity.

A BULL KILLS A FARMER.

Tramples and Gores J. B. Swartz In Talbot County.

Easton, Md., June 24—John B. Swartz, about 50 years old, a farmer living about three miles from Easton, was killed by an infuriated Jersey bull, owned by Charles Wilson and Burton Henry and which Mr. Swartz was keeping on his farm. They were cutting wheat on Mr. Swartz's farm He had just finished dinner and leaving the men at the table went to the barn, picked up two balls of binder twine and started down the lane leading to the wheat field.

The bull, which was grazing in the lane, saw him coming and made a rush for him, knocking him down and then rolled, pawed and butted him for a distance of 50 feet into woven wire fence, breaking it down. About 10 minutes after Mr. Swartz had left the house the men started for the field, where they found Mr. Swartz, with the bull standing over him, butting and pawing him to death His jawbone was driven into his head his breast bone was broken and every rib crushed. He leaves his widow and one son; also an adopted daughter.

BACK TAX ACT INVOLVED

Lawyers in Roanoke County Case Question Constitutionality of Law

Lynchburg, Va., June 24—In the Circuit Court of Roanoke County, at Salem. Thursday, Judge W. W. Moffitt overruled the demurrer to the bill in the case of the Commonwealth, the town of Salem and the County of Roanoke against the Bonsack Machine Company, took jurisdiction in the case and gave the defendant company ten days in which to file its answer to the bill of complaint.

During the time the demurrer was under discussion by the attorneys interested, it developed that one of the most interesting questions to come up in the litigation will be the constitutionality of the law enacted last winter by the General Assembly, limiting the authority of the municipalities and counties to go back of 1904 for omitted or back taxes. It is understood the contention of the attorneys for the complaints is that this law is not in accord with the Constitution of the State, and it promises to be one of the real issues of the suit.

Involved in the suit are alleged back taxes of $71,000 already assessed and the right of the county and town to go back to 1883 for further omitted assessments.

The Bonsack Company was a holding company, with no assets save the stock of the United Cigarette Machine Company, which has plants here and in Germany, and which latter company was operating under a British charter. Early during the year the British charter was surrendered, and the company now is operating as a Virginia corporation. About the same time the Bonsack Company surrendered its charter and went out of business, the stock of the United Company previously, being held by that company being distributed to its stockholders pro rata.
